We could find out about tractors

and an apple cider press and Round Oak Rag

Apple Elevation, and milk a cow named Bessie and see real chickens and pigs and goats and sheep and visit an old country store and look inside a real silo and . . . .